Argonne Soldier, Gassed and in Poor Health, Ends Life With Bullet.

James Adcock, 23 years old, who, in the presence of his wife, shot himself above the heart at 7 o'clock Monday night, died at 8:17 o'clock last night at City Hospital. The bullet pierced a lung.

After having been gassed in France, in July, 1918, Adcock had been in poor health. It is believed this prompted his act.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Rosie Adcock, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Adcock.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the residence, 2201 Rowan Street. Burial will be in Eastern Cemetery. Adcock was an awning erector.

While a member of the Rainbow Division he saw service in Argonne Forest.
