

OLD FAMILY SERVANT OF "TIP" TYLER DIES

Courier-Journal (1869-1922); Oct 22, 1915;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Louisville Courier Journal (1830-1922)

pg. 2

OLD FAMILY SERVANT OF "TIP" TYLER DIES

Mattie Lewis, colored, 59 years old, died of paralysis at her home, 535 South Twelfth street. She was ill four days. In early life she nursed in many prominent families, including that of the late "Tip" Tyler, formerly Mayor of Louisville. She leaves a husband, Plummer Lewis, a veteran soldier; two sons, one, Cary B. Lewis, a newspaper man of Chicago. The funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. from Zion Baptist church, the Rev. W. H. Craighead, officiating. The interment will be in Eastern cemetery in the lot for the servants of the late Levi Tyler.