

NEGRO UNDERTAKER TO BE BURIED TO-MORROW

Courier-Journal (1869-1922); Apr 1, 1906;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Louisville Courier Journal (1830-1922)

pg. C1

NEGRO UNDERTAKER TO BE BURIED TO-MORROW.

The burial of William Watson, a negro undertaker, will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in Eastern cemetery. Watson had conducted an undertaking establishment at Tenth and Chestnut streets for a number of years. He died about a month ago, and the body has been held in a vault.

SKATES FOR ATHLETIC CLUB RINK PATRONS.

The Athletic Club Rink gave away two pairs of skates last night, one for men and another for women. The management will give away two pairs of skates each week. The attendance at the rink has been growing steadily, capacity crowds attending both sessions each day.
